FEUD BREAKS OUT

FOR TROLLEY EXPRESS IN COLCHESTER SYNAGOGUE Hyman Mintz Accused of Assaulting Similar Petition to Be Circulated All the Rabbi Sunday-Placed Under Proposed Norwich-Putnam $500 Bonds for Hearing August 14.

> A long smoldering church feud broke Into flame in Colchester this week and as an aftermath a Norwich sheriff and two Norwich attorneys visited that village on business Wednesday. At-torney Allyn L. Brown went along to assist Grand Juror Samuel Gellert of Coichester, Thomas J. Kelley ac-companied him to sit as justice of the peace, and Sheriff Herbert E. Draper was there to make the arrest. The defendant was Hyman Mintz, aged about 50, a Colchester saloon keeper, who was charged with breach of the peace and assault and battery on the rabbit of the Colchester synagogue. After some trouble Deputy Sheriff Draper located Mintz but when presented the prisoner seked to have the case continued and he was granted until August 14, under $500 bonds, to

As soon as possible the the various petitions will be sent off together to the general offices of the trolley company at New Haven, and it is hoped to get a hearing shortly offer. secure counsel. The trial will be in Grange hall, Colchester. For some time, it is claimed, Mintx has been a disturbing factor in the synagogue. Sunday night maters came to a crisis, when he proposed that an investigation be made in re-gard to the church finances and particularly in regard to the rabbi's sal-ary. The motion prevailed, and a committee of three was appointed. Then Mintz claimed that the books of the secretary, and the rabbit was the secretary, should be turned over to the committee. But the majority voted this down, claiming that access to the books was all that could be justly Congressman Edwin W.
